MISSION

The Neuse River Bridge Run serves the community by promoting a healthy, active lifestyle and through its financial support to six community non-profit organizations.

This event benefits 6 non-profit organizations:

The Event

The Neuse River Bridge Run (NRBR) began 20 years ago and continues to be a vital part in bridging the gaps for 6 non-profit organizations in Craven and Jones Counties. Together, these organizations provide support, services and advocacy for over 120,000 residents in Eastern NC.

Who Benefits?

The NRBR benefits six (6) organizations that bring concrete and important value and advocacy to and for residents of Craven, Pamlico and Jones Counties.

The member organizations for NRBR 2024 are:

- Craven Community College Foundation
- Duffyfield Phoenix Project
- The Filling Station
- Mediation Center of Eastern Carolina
- Religious Community Services (RCS)
- Twin Rivers YMCA

What programs are supported by this event?

- Targeted programs for the homeless and the hungry
- Promotion of physical health
- Leadership programs for children & young adults
- For those in conflict with others, teaching mediation skills to avoid the court system and resolve issues
- Support to community college students who aspire to learn professional and trade skills
- Support and engagement within our communities to improve the education, physical health and cultural well-being of individuals and neighborhoods

Our Track Record

Our participation is growing! For 2023, registrations for the Neuse River Bridge Run events totaled 1,323. The events bring over 2,000 runners, volunteers, sponsors, families, friends and cheerleaders to Downtown New Bern for 2-days of family friendly activities. Net proceeds provided over $54,000 in support for the 6 non-profit organizations of the partnership. We invite you to help us grow!
